Here and There

Editorial By ALEX. H. WASHBURN

DEAR PUBLISHER: As a newspaper man, you undoubtedly favor the candidacy of Howard Reed for Governor, for certainly you must resent the treatment Arkansas newspapers have received under the Futrell administration, and you must certainly be convinced by now that if he is re-elected we may expect nothing better than the full and complete repeal of the Publicity Act.

100 Millions of Indebtedness on Farm Is Adjusted

2,400 Committees Show Adjustment Progress in 42 States

VOLUNTARY POLICY

Creditor Compromise Makes Bankruptcy Move Unnecessary

WASHINGTON (AP)—Adjustment of more than $100,000,000 in farmers' mortgages Sunday by the Farm Credit Administration.

Reports from farm debt adjustment committees in 2,400 counties of 42 of the states, or 90 per cent of the nation's agricultural counties, indicated their belief that success in adjusting debts between creditors and debtors had made it unnecessary to bankruptcy under the Frazier-Lemke mortgage moratorium law.

Solution Is Found
"The experience in farm debt settlement, according to those committees, so far indicates that by far the greater majority of cases of excessive indebtedness, may find immediate solution through voluntary conciliation," the administration said.

Adjustments enabling thousands of farmers to save their homes, it was added, in Wisconsin, Ohio, Missouri, Washington and Mississippi from 1,000 to 4,000 farm homes were retained by their owners due to the adjustment work of county committees, officials said.

Records of two states were mentioned as typical. In Illinois, committees found solution of debts of more than 3,000 distressed farmers, adjusting farm indebtedness approximating $20,000,000, and in Wisconsin more than 2,000 farmers with debts aggregating $14,700,000 have retained possession of their homes.

Stock Loans
The administration also announced it would make loans to farmers and stockmen in official emergency drought areas to pay costs of moving livestock to new pastures and range lands.

Loans will be limited to a maximum of $3 per head for farm cattle; $1.50 for range cattle; $4 for farm workstock; $2 for saddle and pack horses 50 cents for sheep and 35 cents for goats.

The loans also must cover the cost of pasturage, the maximum allowance for this purpose being 50 cents per head per month.

Such advances will be available through the emergency drought areas selected by the Farm Credit Administration from the Farm Administration's official list. These areas now comprise 906 counties in 21 states, including all of the Dakotas, Nebraska and Utah, large portions of Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, New Mexico, Nebraska, Texas and Wyoming, and some parts of Arkansas, Iowa, Oklahoma, Oregon and Wisconsin.

Six 5-Day Weeks for Duck Season

Shooting to Be Banned on Sunday and Monday, Nov. 6-Dec. 15

The Arkansas Game and Fish Commission, meeting at the Hotel Ben McGehee Saturday night voted to recommend to the United States Biological Survey that the Arkansas duck season for 1934 consist of six five-day weeks, beginning November 16, and closing January 15.

The Department of Agriculture recently decided that duck shooting should be limited to 30 days this year, as was done two years ago. States were permitted some leeway in the arrangement of the 30 days.

Guy Amador, secretary of the commission, said that the Biological Survey would receive recommendations of the southern states and try to make a more or less uniform season throughout the south. Hence the decision of the Arkansas commission may be changed by federal action.

However, Mr. Amador said, he believed the majority of the late commission may remain unchanged. Tennessee has approved 10 three-day hunting weeks, he said.

Therefore we have everything to gain and nothing to lose by supporting Howard Reed. It is a known fact that he is in sympathy with the publishers of the state, and by the following letter addressed to the press of the state went on record, as their FRIEND:

"I desire to advise that I am in sympathy with the Publicity Act as now written, and desire to assure you that if I am the governor it will not be disturbed with my consent. I am firmly convinced that real property should not be sold for taxes without adequate notice by publication to all persons interested and concerned. And I further think that collection of personal taxes would be materially increased if delinquent personal taxes were published with a reasonable printer's fee for service to be a part of the cost when paid."

This statement issued July 15th, 1934 is on file in our office and in the office of Armitage Harper, secretary of the Arkansas Press Association, and definitely establishes Howard Reed as a FRIEND of the newspapers of the state.

Fully convinced of the sincerity of Mr. Reed, and of his qualifications to fill the governor's office we are openly and actively (at our own expense) supporting him in this race, and believe that when called to their attention, a large per cent of other publishers will be willing to do the same. We are therefore urging you to get into the fight for Reed, using your influence and the influence of your paper, in his behalf, in order that the press may for all time establish the fact that the newspapers of Arkansas must be respected by the ring of politicians of the state.

We inclose herewith copy of an address which we hope you will run as your contribution to this newspaper man's FRIEND, who openly declares himself in favor of a square deal for the Arkansas Press.

If you believe as we do, and run this ad, send us a copy of your paper, as we want to keep a record of the publishers of the state who have the intestinal fortitude to stand up on their hind legs and fight.

With best regards, we are, Yours very truly, THE FORDYCE WEEKLY NEWS, ROY L. ELLIOTT.

Received in Hope, Aug. 6, 1934.

X X X
This letter is the best campaign argument I have yet seen for the reelection of Governor Futrell.

The letter reveals that there are Arkansas newspaper men who believe the press should use its editorial influence to feather its own nest with public money.

The Star's resistance to the theory that the government owes the newspapers a living is very well known.

All that we ask is to be let alone—accepting no favors from our friends, giving no quarter to our enemies.

Governor Futrell in scaling down the paid legal publications which went to the newspapers, only followed out the strict word of his campaign pledge to reduce the cost of Arkansas' government.

County Candidates on Home Stretch; City at 8 Monday

Speaking Monday Night to Be on Baptist Church Lawn

BAILEY ON TUESDAY

W. S. Atkins Will Speak at Spring Hill at 8 Tuesday Night

With the Democratic primary less than 10 days away, county and district candidates are launching their home-stretch campaign with a political rally in Hope Monday night.

It will be the first opportunity for many voters to hear the candidates since the stump-speaking tour over the county first started.

A greater portion of the county has been visited. Only Blewins, DeAnn, Piney Grove and Washington remain on the itinerary.

Blewins will be visited Tuesday, DeAnn Wednesday; Piney Grove, Thursday; and Washington Friday.

Candidates will speak in Hope from a stage platform on the lawn of the First Baptist church, starting shortly after 8 o'clock. Church services will be held as usual except that starting time has been moved up to 7 p. m. to allow the political rally to begin at 8.

Loud speaker devices have been set up. Additional seating capacity has been provided for the audience.

Candidates are expected to put the finishing touches on their campaign speeches for the Hope rally in their drive for votes.

Carl Bailey, candidate for Attorney General, will deliver a campaign address Tuesday afternoon on the church lawn starting at 4 o'clock.

Tuesday night the voters of Spring Hill will be addressed by W. S. Atkins in the interest of his candidacy for congress from the Seventh district. The Spring Hill speech starts at 8 o'clock.

Fossil of Corn Is Declared a Hoax

Museum Finds It Is Really an Ancient Rattle, of Clay

WASHINGTON (AP)—A hoax that fooled the world of science for 20 years has come to light and Smithsonian Institution scientists are a little crestfallen.

An object they have been showing off proudly for the past two decades as the oldest known ear of corn on earth turned out to be one of the best fakes in history. It's only a clay rattle fashioned by some ancient Peruvian craftsman into an amazingly clever imitation.

The "fake" ear of corn to all outward appearances was a fossil, preserved in the ground for several thousand years, thus indicating corn was grown in very ancient times by the Indians of old Peru.

Scientists had accepted the object as such ever since it came into the possession of the institute about 1914, after being purchased in Cuzco, Peru. It has been on public exhibition in the National museum here.

Recently Dr. Roland W. Brown of the Geological Survey discovered the truth. The supposed fossil was formed of clay, moulded by hand and baked to hardness in a slow fire. Near the base was a conical cavity containing three small round, oval pellets. In other words, the thing was a rattle.

Scientifically, the rattle is still important. Obviously ancient, it shows corn was familiar to the Peruvians long ago.

Stockyard Strike Finally Settled
Peace Terms Are Hailed as Victory by Union Leaders

(CHICAGO (AP)—The 12-day strike of livestock handlers at the Union Stockyards ended late Saturday night when the men accepted a settlement.

Completed 6 hours of conference with principals.

The high shift of the 800 striking employees of the Union Stockyards and Transit Company returned to their posts Sunday on the yards again are wide open for trading.

The settlement was an outgrowth of the agreement reached by mediators before Judge Philip L. Sullivan of the federal bench to halt a strike last week for all regularly employed hands.

So-called "extra employees" were guaranteed at least 40 hours a week, and weekly pay receipts reach 4,000 men, which would be an unusual high.

Union leaders hailed it as a victory.

Marines Haul Down Stars and Stripes

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP)—The United States flag, which has flown for the last 13 years over the Marine Corps barracks at Cape Haitien, on the north coast of Haiti, was lowered Monday and the Haitian flag was raised in its place. Complete withdrawal of the Marines from Haiti is scheduled August 15.

U. S. Employment Office Is Dropped Here on Monday

Bert Keith and 5 Clerks Eliminated in Retrenchment

FERA UNAFFECTED

State Action Take on Washington Recommendation

Abolition of the Hempstead county re-employment office was ordered Monday in a communication received here by Bert Keith from W. A. Rooksberry, state re-employment director at Little Rock.

The order affects Mr. Keith, Hempstead re-employment officer, and five office clerks. Their services, due to the reduction, terminates August 7. The FERA office will not be affected by the order received here Monday, Mr. Keith said.

Abolition of the Hope office, Mr. Rooksberry said in the communication, "is to carry out telegraphic instructions from Washington to immediately reduce the personnel of the National Re-employment services for Arkansas since the operation expense for this service is exceeding the appropriation for this purpose."

There being no alternative to choose from and it being necessary that these instructions be carried out, we are combining counties, particularly to take care of public work projects.

"I wish to express my appreciation for your services as rendered in the past, and hope that you may obtain employment worth consideration within the near future," the message concluded.

Hindenburg Spirit Still Lives, Hitler

Dictator Lauds Late President Before German Parliament

BERLIN, Germany (AP)—From the rostrum where on July 13 he defended the killing of 77 "revolutionaries" and declared he was Germany's law, Adolf Hitler Monday paid tribute to the late President Paul von Hindenburg and prayed for peace, freedom and the honor of Germany.

The chancellor's address was non-political in character.

He implored the people to look to the future. He said: "Hindenburg is not dead. He is living. For in dying he now wanders above us amidst the immortals of our people, surrounded by the great spirits of the past as the eternal patron and protector of the German Reich and the German nation."

Negro Playfields Are Opened Here

Two FERA negro playgrounds in Hope opened last week with a total enrollment of 260.

The playgrounds are located on the north and south sides of the city, one being at Oaklawn park and the other at Yerber park.

Hours designated for negro children from 6 years up are from 8 to 11 in the morning, and from 2:30 to 5:30 in the afternoon, for a five-day week.

The two playgrounds are under the supervision of Edmon Davis. The supervisors and instructors are on the FERA payroll.

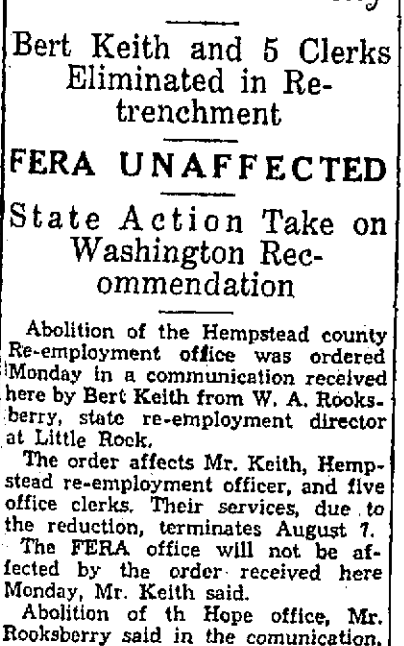

Auto Workers to Leave A. F. of L.
DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—Arthur E. Greer, president of the Hudson Motor Car Co., local of the United Automobile Workers Federal Union, announced Saturday night that 1,000 members had withdrawn from the American Federation of Labor and were joining an independent association exclusively for auto workers.

At Lansing it became known that union employees of the Olds Motor Works had taken similar action. In Flint spokesmen for the union employees of the Chevrolet and Buick companies declined to discuss the matter, but said that "nothing had been done yet."

Greer asserted that it was the intention of the workers to deal with the company through their own representatives, and that the union had applied for a charter of membership in the Associated Automobile Workers of America.

Pointing out that the automobile workers were not satisfied with the representation supplied by the A. F. of L., and criticizing the federation for its operations, Greer said, "we want to do the fair thing by the management, and we expect the management to do the fair thing by us. That could not be true if the management were not doing business with people who had no connection with the business."

She Is Deprived of Child

Custody of her 4-year-old daughter, De Cygne L'Amour, shown left with the father in Oklahoma City court, was lost by Mrs. Norma Smallwood Gilcrease, "Miss America" of 1928, right, in her divorce battle with Thomas Gilcrease, Oklahoma oil magnate. The child will remain with the father until settlement is reached in the suit, in which sensational charges have been made by counsel for Gilcrease, and vigorously denied by the mother.

25 Persons Slain in Algeria Riots

French Clamp Down Censorship on African Protectorate

ALGIERS, Algeria (AP)—Twenty-five persons were reported killed Monday and hundreds hurt in a two-day rioting in Constantine.

Censorship made it difficult to get details.

The ministry of the interior at Paris, which has jurisdiction over Algeria, said it had no confirmation of the reports.

Several Jewish homes were reported burned.

Home Loan Bonds Floated Monday

Their Reception Will Determine U. S. Credit Moves

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Home Owners' Loan Corporation, which already has exchanged $30,000,000 of its bonds for mortgages on homes throughout the country, Monday seeks to raise $150,000,000 from the public. The money will be used to recondition many of these homes, and for other expenses incident to the lending program.

Three $50,000,000 series of notes, maturing in two, three and four years, will be offered by the Treasury on behalf of the corporation. Bearing interest coupons of 1 1/2, 1 3/4 and two per cent, respectively, and fully guaranteed by the government, they will be sold to the highest bidders. The books close August 8.

This marks the second time the Treasury has entered the capital market on behalf of another governmental agency, it having marketed $100,000,000 of Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation bonds two weeks ago.

The Home Owners' Loan Corporation up to July 27 had refinanced 14,190 homes by exchange of its three per cent bonds for existing mortgages. Heretofore it has drawn on its $200,000,000 capital funds for cash.

The reception of the note issue is awaited with deep interest by Treasury officials, because it may help point the way of the Treasury's own borrowing program.

If the Home Owners' loan notes are well-subscribed, as Treasury officials believe they will be, it is possible that some of the $1,500,000,000 of constantly-maturing Treasury bills will be refunded into issues of this kind in September.

The Treasury on September 15 will refund $1,200,000,000 of called Fourth Liberty 4 1/2's in addition to taking care of more than $500,000,000 of maturing certificates. A medium of long-term issue will be exchanged for the Liberties but disposition of the remainder is very much a matter of the intervening market.

Even allowing for use of $1,000,000,000 of the Treasury's heavy cash balance, substantial "new money" borrowing is expected to get under way in the fall under the emergency program of President Roosevelt calling for an increase of nearly $5,000,000,000 in the public debt during the fiscal year.

This borrowing, plus the refunding of maturing obligations, will require around $30,000,000,000 of additional bonds.

U. S. Employment Office Is Dropped Here on Monday

Miss Audis Bobo, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bobo of near Spring Hill was struck and knocked from an automobile Sunday night on the Lewisville road, sustaining severe bruises and abrasions about the body.

Miss Bobo, riding the running board of a car driven by her father, was side-swiped and knocked loose by a car that failed to stop. She fell to the gravel and rolled several yards.

She was brought to the Josephine hospital at Hope, and after first aid was administered, allowed to return home.

The Bobos were enroute to their home from Midway, a small community on the Lewisville road. The driver of the hit-and-run car was believed to be under the influence of intoxicants.

Wife Shoots and Kills Her Rival

12-Year-Old Daughter Boasts She "Helped Mama Kill Her"

WICHITA FALLS, Texas (AP)—Mrs. Wilma Harrison, 30, a religious worker, shot and killed Mrs. Cora Hawthorne, 30, in a crowded grocery store here Saturday because, she said, officers, Mrs. Hawthorne associated with her husband.

Mrs. Harrison was charged with murder. She waived a preliminary hearing under $5,000 bond pending action by the grand jury. She made a long statement in the presence of newspapermen, but details of the shooting were withheld.

Mrs. Harrison said her husband had told her of his associations with Mrs. Hawthorne.

Mrs. Hawthorne was shot twice, one bullet entering the temple and the other the chest. The shots were fired in rapid succession and then the assailant walked to the street and surrendered to a traffic officer.

Mrs. Harrison's daughter, Betty, 12, told Sam Spence, district attorney, she was "glad I helped Mama kill her."

She accompanied Mrs. Harrison to the store and told detectives she walked across the store when her mother approached Mrs. Hawthorne. Mrs. Harrison said she withheld shooting until the other woman was in front of a blank wall in the store, so no one else would be struck by the bullets.

New Orleans Split by Armed Camps

Long and Walmsley Make Lafayette Street "No Man's Land"

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Still minus open activities after a week of martial law, the armed camp of Mayor Huey P. Long and Mayor Walmsley Monday took to their guns with Lafayette street, the "no man's land" of New Orleans, respectively. The Sunday was spent quietly.

Even allowing for use of $1,000,000,000 of the Treasury's heavy cash balance, substantial "new money" borrowing is expected to get under way in the fall under the emergency program of President Roosevelt calling for an increase of nearly $5,000,000,000 in the public debt during the fiscal year.

This borrowing, plus the refunding of maturing obligations, will require around $30,000,000,000 of additional bonds.
